Zachary Holsinger LaGrange County Surveyor

Zachary Holsinger is the current LaGrange County Surveyor. He graduated from Ball State University in 2009 with a degree in Economics. Zachary has spent many years post college working in Ecological Restoration, Construction, and land management. This work background has been a great foundation in preparing for his current role as County Surveyor. Zachary has been employed at the Surveyors Office now for over 5 years and is currently seeking another term as County Surveyor. He is a lifelong resident of LaGrange County residing near a small settlement called Mongo. In his spare time, he enjoys the outdoors with hobbies including kayaking, hiking, biking, swimming, water skiing, hunting, and enjoy participating in most ball sports. He enjoys working with land, helping people, and managing the water resources within the County of LaGrange.
