

David C. Bausman

General Counsel

Indiana Department of Natural Resources

David Bausman serves as General Counsel for the Indiana Department of Natural Resources (DNR) after previously serving as the agency's Legislative and Public Policy Director. In his role at DNR, he manages DNR's legal team and works with DNR staff, members of the Indiana General Assembly, the Governor's Office, and local, state, and federal agencies on a wide range of conservation issues, including carbon sequestration, wetlands, and floodplain/drainage issues.

Before joining DNR, David worked at the Office of the Attorney General (OAG) where he previously served as a Deputy Attorney General and Legislative Director. Prior to his role at the OAG, he led the policy and regulatory affairs team at the Indiana State Department of Agriculture (ISDA). While at ISDA, he also served as the Executive Director of the Indiana Land Resources Council and was the Lt. Governor's proxy for the Environmental Rules Board.

David has a bachelor's degree in political science from DePauw University and a law degree from Robert H. McKinney School of Law at Indiana University. He lives in Johnson County with his wife and two daughters and enjoys fishing, golfing, and the Great Outdoors.

