

Steve Allen
Health Plans Manager

Steve Allen joined Indiana Farm Bureau in November 2022 as manager of Indiana Farm Bureau Health Plans. In this role, he oversees development and execution of the plans as well as training Indiana Farm Bureau Insurance personnel to deliver the plans.

INFB Health Plans launched 2020 and include a package of health care coverage options for members, including individual and family health coverage plans, Medicare Supplement Insurance Plans and dental/vision coverage.

In addition to his focus on delivering health benefits to INFB members, Allen focuses on building stakeholder relationships, supporting internal distribution channels, developing sales concepts, legislative review and increasing awareness of the plans.

Prior to joining INFB, Allen owned a successful insurance agency in Kokomo for five years. Before that he had a career in technical college administration with positions including area president of the Daymar College Group in Nashville, Tennessee, and recruiting and director roles at ITT Technical Institute in Indianapolis and Louisville.

He has a bachelor's degree from Purdue University and an MBA from Kaplan University. His volunteer interests include serving as a member of the Clinton County YMCA board of directors.

Allen and his wife, Casey Ann, live in Frankfort and have two grown children.
