Speaker Biography

Jennifer Hughes
Attorney & Partner

Church Church Hittle + Antrim

Jenni joined Church Church Hittle + Antrim in October 2009, dedicating her practice to family law with a specific focus on property division, complex financial and valuation issues, parenting time, and child support. Jenni's practice focuses on strategy for clients in the equitable division of property while protecting assets. She also routinely assists clients with the drafting, negotiation, and execution of prenuptial and postnuptial agreements.

Jenni's extensive experience and legal expertise in family law make her a trusted advocate for clients facing complex issues in their family matters, including business valuations, analysis of benefits and compensation, the division and distribution of property and assets, and child custody.
