

MICHELLE ADLER
GORDON & ASSOCIATES
PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION
Attorneys providing guidance for family asset transfers

Michelle is a graduate of Purdue University and the Indiana University Maurer School of Law. Prior to joining Gordon & Associates P.C. in 2013, Michelle served as a law clerk at the Indiana University Foundation, as a legal intern at Trilegal - a law firm based in Delhi, India, focusing on international business transactions - and she worked directly with a legal advocate of the Supreme Court of India. At Gordon & Associates, she focuses her practice on estate planning, long-term care planning, and agricultural-related business issues. Michelle is well prepared to consult with you in these areas of law and will work to develop a plan personally designed for your needs. A native of Fulton County, she currently resides with her husband, Jerod, and their son and daughter in Adams County.

Areas of Practice:

- Estate Planning
- Business Succession Planning
- Business Organization
- Long Term Care Planning

Admitted to Practice:

- Indiana State Courts
- U.S. District Court, Northern District of Indiana
- U.S. District Court, Southern District of Indiana

Education:

- J.D., Indiana University Mauer School of Law
- M.S.Ed, Purdue University
- B.A., Purdue University

Professional Associations and Memberships:

- American Bar Association
- Indiana State Bar Association
 - Agricultural Law Section
 - Probate, Trust & Real Property Section

- Wells County Bar Association
- Fulton County Bar Association

Publications:

- Indiana Law Journal, Volume 88, Issue 3, Religiously Devout Judges: A Decision-Making Framework for Judicial Disqualification, 2013

Classes/Seminar Participation:

- ISBA Agricultural Law Seminar
- Women in Agriculture Conference
- Estate & Succession Planning for the Family Farm
- Farm Business Law
- Estate & Business Succession Planning

Community Involvement:

- The Bridge Community Church